Jean-Luc Chalant,
new manager of
X-Yachts France

New management in X-Yachts France

X-Yachts France, which is a company in the X-Yachts Group, has nominated Jean-Luc Chalant as new manager of the company.

Jean Luc Chalant has had a successful career within the leisure boat industry. Latest as Director of Firros Yachts International, but earlier also involved in sales and development of Dufour Yachts and Grand Soleil on the French market.

José Vande Castele, who has been manager of X-Yachts France since 1991, has decided to retire as from the 30 September 2009. José Vande Castele has been a cornerstone in the development of X-Yachts on the French market to the very strong position it has today.

Jean Luc Chalant will start in his new position from the 20 September 2009. At Grand Pavois International In-Water Boat Show in La Rochelle, it will therefore be possible to meet both the new and the old management of X-Yachts France.
